CALL FOR PAPERS

OUCIP

Journal of International Studies

(A Bi-annual multidisciplinary journal of Osmania University Centre for International Programmes)

About OUCIP

Osmania University Centre for International Programmes (OUCIP), Osmania University, Hyderabad – 500007 (A.P.), India, came into existence when the University was formally given charge of the erstwhile American Studies Research Centre (ASRC) by the UGC in 2006. It has since been a Centre catering to research activities and collaboration with universities across the globe. Its vast library is popular among scholars of all ages belonging to different disciplines. It has hosted a number of International Conferences. Eminent scholars from reputed universities worldwide give lectures at the Centre regularly. The Centre also arranges training programmes such as Refresher Courses, Research Methodology Workshops, etc., often jointly with other institutions. OUCIP has also been offering Pre and Post-doctoral fellowships with funding from the US consulate in Hyderabad.

The Journal

The launch of journal should be understood in the context of globalization that is drawing various social, economic, political and environmental processes together in the present day world. It defines the field of International Studies as largely multidisciplinary. It connects International Studies integrally to all social sciences. OUCIP Journal of International Studies, initiated with the support of Jim Roach Endowment, is a multi-disciplinary publication of Osmania University Centre for International Programmes, Osmania University, Hyderabad – 500007, (A.P.), India. It is a refereed Journal that publishes analytical articles on International Studies from the broad fields of Social Sciences. It is a bi-annual journal published in June and December. The first volume of the Journal is scheduled for publication in December 2013.
